ORDER¹

The Union's petitions to revoke subpoena duces tecum B-1-NX5PRX and subpoenas ad testificandum A-1-NXCQ39 and A-1-NXB8PV are denied. The subpoenas seek information relevant to the matter under investigation and describe with sufficient particularity the evidence sought, as required by Section 11(1) of the Act and Section 102.31(b) of the Board's Rules and Regulations. Further, the Union has failed to establish any other legal basis for revoking the subpoenas.² See generally NLRB v. North Bay Plumbing, Inc., 102 F.3d 1005 (9th Cir. 1996); NLRB v. Carolina Food Processors, Inc., 81 F.3d 507 (4th Cir. 1996).

¹ The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

² To the extent that the subpoena duces tecum encompasses some documents that the Union believes in good faith to be subject to the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, this Order is without prejudice to the Union's prompt submission of a privilege log to the Region identifying and describing each such document, and providing sufficient detail to permit an assessment of the Union's claim of privilege or protection. The Union is directed to produce all responsive documents in its possession not subject to any good-faith claim of privilege or protection.
